

19th Century Communication: Writing Letters as an Early Settler

Have children imagine that they and their family are early settlers living in the 1830s in the backwoods. Children should write a letter to a friend or family back in Scotland to share with them what their daily life is like. Children can brainstorm ideas for the letter using the graphic organizer provided in the resource package.

(Write the Name and Address of who you are writing to)

(Date)

Dear, _____

Sincerely,
(sign your name below)

Star Diagram Graphic Organizer

Name: _____ Date: _____

